(1) Current Procedural Terminology ("CPT") — the data as contained in the electronic data file of the annual version of the CPT.
(2) International Classification of Diseases ("ICD") — the data as contained in the electronic data file of the specific version of the ICD.
(3) Healthcare Common Procedure Coding System, Level II ("HCPCS") — the data as contained in the electronic data file of the annual version of HCPCS.
(4) CPT Relative Value Units ("CPT RVU") — the data as contained in the electronic data file of the annual version of the CPT RVU.

b) Licensed use; Number of Users. USE OF THE LICENSED MATERIALS IS SUBJECT TO THE LIMITATIONS APPLICABLE TO CERTAIN LICENSED MATERIALS AS SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, INCLUDING SECTION 6 BELOW. The Licensed Materials may be used only internally at a single entity within your facilities in the United States or its territories, only by you and your Users (as defined below) and in any case (i) not more than 25 Users for CPT, ICD, and HCPCS and (ii) not more than 10 users for CPT RVU. If CPT, ICD, or HCPCS will be used by more than 25 Users or in the case of CPT RVU, more than 10 users, you must execute a separate license agreement with the AMA and the terms and conditions of such agreement, and not this Agreement, will govern the use of the Licensed Materials.

A "User" is defined as an individual who: (a) accesses, uses, or manipulates the Licensed Materials; or (b) accesses, uses, or manipulates a program which includes the Licensed Materials to produce or enable an output (data, reports and the like) that could not have been created without the Licensed Materials embedded in the program even though the Licensed Materials may not be visible or directly accessible; or (c) makes use of an output of a program which includes the Licensed Materials that relies on or could not have been created without the Licensed Materials embedded in the program even though the Licensed Materials may not be visible or directly accessible.

AMA shall provide you with reasonable notice of such audit and such audits shall not occur on less than fourteen (14) business days’ prior written request. The books and records shall be made available to AMA at a single location in the United States, during normal business hours. AMA may employ an independent auditor or AMA may choose to conduct such audit on its own behalf. AMA shall be responsible for paying the auditor’s fees unless such audit discloses an aggregate under payment for the audited period in excess of five percent (5%); in which case you will reimburse AMA’s reasonable audit expenses excluding travel expenses. You shall immediately pay the AMA any amounts due as a result of an audit. AMA will keep your records confidential. This paragraph shall survive termination of this Agreement for one (1) year.

c) Copies and modifications. You may copy the Licensed Materials into any machine readable or printed form for backup in support of your use of the Licensed Materials. Any copy, modification or merged portion or version of the Licensed Materials will continue to be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. You must reproduce and include the copyright notice as it appears in the Licensed Materials on any copy or portion of the Licensed Materials merged into another program to give reasonable notice of the AMA’s copyright under the copyright laws of the United States and any rules and regulations thereunder.

For CPT® and CPT® RVU products: If you merge the Licensed Materials or any portion thereof into another program, you must reproduce and include the copyright notice as it appears in the Licensed Materials on any copy or portion of the Licensed Materials to give reasonable notice of the AMA's copyright under the copyright laws of the United States and any rules and regulations thereunder.

d) Prohibitions. You may not use, copy, or modify the Licensed Materials or any copy, modification or merged portion or version of the Licensed Materials, in whole or in part, in any other manner except as expressly provided for in this Agreement. You agree that uses not authorized by this Agreement are expressly prohibited. These prohibitions include, without limitation, any use of theLicensed Materials or any copy, modification or merged portion or version of the Licensed Materials in any public computer-based information system, including the Internet or World Wide Web, and creating derivative works including translations. You may not sell, sublicense, assign or transfer the Agreement or the Licensed Materials or any copy, modification or merged portion or version of the Licensed Materials to any party. Any attempt to sell, sublicense, assign or transfer any of the rights, duties or obligations hereunder is void and shall immediately terminate this Agreement and the license granted under it.
